It gives me great pleasure on behalf of the Kiama Show Society to present the Winning Wine Guide for the 2006 Kiama Regional Wine Show.

A wine show can be extremely influential for exhibitors but consumer approval is essential for a wine's success. Kiama Regional Wine Show aims not only to identify quality local producers and help promote excellence in the wine industry by issuing awards, it also seeks to create a structure that provides a forum for networking, communication and education.

This year, in addition to a Winemakers Workshop run by Rob Geddes MW of Winestream focusing on the importance of reputation and strong brand identity for producer and region alike, for the first time there were both Public and Trade tastings as part of the Wine Show at which orders could be taken by participating vineyards.

It is important to give the local trade and consumers a chance to discover for themselves the quality and diversity of their local districts. Wine creates spin-offs for other industries. It drives up demand for jobs in construction, publishing, tourism, education, food production, and hospitality.

To assist this year's new program, the 2006 Kiama Regional Wine Show received a $15,000 State Government grant. Further financial assistance was provided by Kiama Council, Kiama & District Chamber of Commerce, Tourism Kiama and a number of commercial sponsors. We are very grateful for this level of support.

The mix of a value adding program and secure funding resulted in a record number of entries. In our third year entry numbers are up by over 35%, with 172 wines entered from 31 commercial producers, making a wonderful showcase of the huge potential both our local wine regions have to offer.

The 2006 judging panel contained two new members, Rob Geddes MW and Nick Ryan, a leading member of the next generation of wine journalists now starting to make their mark in Australia. Led by Chris Cameron, Chief Winemaker of Pepper Tree Wines, as chairman, the panel focused more on the technical attributes of the wines submitted than in previous years. The judges praised the noticeable improvements achieved as vines mature and made several helpful comments and suggestions which will assist the vigneron in their continuing pursuit of excellence. The judges awarded 1 Gold, 9 Silver and 62 Bronze medals. Congratulations to those who received these awards, and thank you to all exhibitors who took part. Without exhibitor participation there would be no show and no opportunity to promote the industry.

The Kiama Show Society hopes this guide will help you to explore the many fine wines of our district.

Chairman

CHRIS CAMERSON

Chairman of Judges

Chris Cameron is the Chief Winemaker of Pepper Tree Wines. He has been working in the wine industry, both as a winemaker and as a wine marketer since 1976. His wines have received awards and trophies both nationally and internationally. Chris operates his own wine consultancy company called Wineworkz Pty Ltd with numerous local and international clients. He won the prestigious Jimmy Watson Memorial Trophy in 2001.

ROB GEDDES

Wine Judge

After starting his wine industry career in the vineyards of the Clare Valley in the 70s, Rob was only the 3rd Australian to pass the rigorous IMW exams and become a Master of Wine.

He bought and redeveloped WineStream - a specialist wine-industry media-relations and marketing consultancy at the end of 2003, after 25 years in the wine industry as an educator, researcher, marketer and broadcaster with the ABC.

Other milestones in his career were becoming the founding executive of the Wines of the Riverina Promotion Committee and judging numerous Australian & International wine shows.

NICK RYAN

Wine Judge

Nick Ryan's career in wine began behind the wheel of a battered bottle-shop delivery van. Realising that writing about it was easier than lifting it has led him to where he is now. He's a regular contributor to Men's Style Australia, The Bulletin, Gourmet Traveller Wine and Your Times. He is passionate about Burgundy, partial to a beer and completely obsessed with the Port Adelaide Football Club.

MS. SHERRYL SHERSON

Associate Judge

Sherryl Sherson is the proprietor of The Wine Boutique, a Wollongong based wholesale license specializing in Australian boutique wines. She also has a focus on wine education teaching at regional TAFE Institutes and WEA. Sherryl's vision and desire for the future of wine education in the Illawarra is to serve the burgeoning wine regions of the Shoalhaven Coast and the Southern Highlands.
